Knoch graduate John Hook and Fox Chapel freshman-to-be Nadia Luttner each won Kings Family Restaurants Junior Player of the Year awards Wednesday after the player of the year tournaments at Highland Country Club.

Hook won the boys 17-18 year-old division with 485 points, which he accumulated all summer. He placed second yesterday, shooting a 3-over-par 73. Luttner finished with a season-high 525 points in winning the girls 14-15 division. She won the tournament yesterday with a 78, 10 shots better than second place Rhiannon Ray.

Both players will be honored at the Tri-State Section PGA Champions dinner Oct. 9 at Chartiers Valley Country Club.
